ABOUT AGLOW INTERNATIONAL

Aglow International is an interdenominational organization of Christian women and men established in more than 170 Nations around the world. It is comprised of ordinary people with over 20,000 volunteer leaders touching over 17 million lives annually. Please visit their website to learn more: www.aglow.org.

Aglow International Matteson Single Moms is a not-for-profit 501 (c)(3) community organization which provides support, networking, encouragement, helpful information and resources to single moms and their children through speakers and events. We want to help the moms feel special, feel loved, and feel greatly appreciated for all the work that they do in raising their families. While making sure that their households operate optimally, work a full-time job, and juggle the finances.*
